The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Ancient Order of Atibernians held a well uttended and Interesting meeting Wednesday night with Miss Mary Sheridan and all the officers' in their chairs. After the routine business of the meeting Miss Ella Otonnell was installed as County President. Mrs. Dan Dougherty, Mrs. Mary Clines and others have been bringing many new members of late, and the reception of five more applications and the obligation of six mempers aroused much cuthusiasm. An invitation to the ladies from Division 1 to the reception in their honor next Tuesday night was a cepted. Announcement was made that the next initiation would soo take place and interested many wh are making efforts to have a large class for that occasion. Several important committees were named and the work of the evening was concluded at a seasonable hour. There is a growing sentiment in favor of a change of quarters for the auxiliary where the hall would be less public and more easy of access, but safe to predict that they will remain with the divisions during the ming scason.

Trenton Hibernians will hold their mnual bazar in Masonic Temple in 1911 Bank street. At a celebration held by Division of Hartford, Conn., fifty candidates ere put through the third and ourth degrees. There are 157 divisions of the La-lies' Auxiliary In Massachusetts, with a membership of 12,769 and asets aggregating $50,000. Massachusetts has 255 divisions wenty-six military companies, and aring the past two years made an ierease of 3,832 in membership Notwithstanding the expenditure of $388,000, of which $190,000 was for sick and death benefits, the total assets of the order in Massachusetts At the Illinois State convention it was decided by a vote of almost two o one that no division of the order in Cook county hold picuies on Sunday hereafter.

At the last meeting of the Ladies Auxiliary of Pawtucket, R. L. a large class of candidates was intiated, followed by a reception for Mrs. Ellen Ryan Jolly, recently elected State President.

A class of forty new members was nitiated into the order by Division 3 of Syracuse at a meeting held Thursday night. The State officers were present and were entertalned with refreshments and a smoker.

Four hundred and eighty-one votes were east in the election for State President at the Massachusets State convention held at Fall River, when John J. Rogers, of Worcester, defeated John F. Donnelly, of Cam-

The Hibernian Knights, Division 15 and the Ladies' Auxiliary of Providence had great reunions at Newport. Before taking the boat there was a fine parade, in which a number of Independent military companies par ticipated. State President Dorsey, addressing meeting of Division 7 at Syracuse sald he wanted to see an increase of 10,000 members during bis adminis tration. This division expects to hold an initiation and enroll 100 members the second week in October. At the annual convention of the Maratime provinces held at llalifax, N. S., it was voted to establish a scholarship in some college in the provinces to be selected at next year's convention. The scholarship will amount to $3,000, and the money will be available by the time of the next session. A red-letter event in the history of the Ladies' Auxiliary of Providence took place recently, when the largest and one of the most promising divis ions ever instituted in Rhode Island was launched into existence in the Elmwood district, having a member ship of sixty-eight, mostly members of the Assumption parisb. Reports submitted at the Wiseon sin State convention held at Mil-wankee last week show a membership of 1,200 in the State, which is an increase of 240 during two years. An appropriation of $1,500 was made, to he put at the disposal of the State Board for the purpose of organizing and extending the order.

Vermont Hibernians held theli convention this week at Montpelier, opening with a mass In St. Augus ne's church, with State Chaplain Barrett as celebrant. The delegates were tendered a banquet Tuesday evening, followed by a ball in Knights of Columbus Hall. Reports howed the order progressing satis-
